

The visit includes a follicle ultrasound by a nurse or physician and blood estradiol (estrogen) level.

Many times your next steps will be outlined for you at this visit and if not, it will be reviewed when we call you with your lab results. Callbacks typically will occur between 12-4 depending on your appointment time and lab turnaround time.